Re-Imagining October is an exciting exhibition that explores the ways artists have re-imaged and re-imagined a shared history of being part of the Soviet Union. The exhibition features work by emerging and established artists from Russia and Eastern Europe, as well as those who have visited the former Soviet Union. All of the artists exhibited work with moving image or photography

This event is part of Time Out First Thursdays

Re-Imagining October* will remain open until Sunday 13 December 2009*
